On the Alkathon 2011

Once again we approach the end of another year, most us grateful for our sobriety, some of us learning to be grateful and some of us just not ready yet, but still keep punchin' at it.

I remember getting sober in Philly and around every holiday multiple groups and clubhouses would have alka-thons. Sharing time and helping each other out with food, soft drinks and 12 step calls made it easy to get through another day. Those memories are very special, I wouldn't trade them for anything, they allowed me to learn more about getting into "the middle of the bed of AA" so it would be harder to fall out.

We are already set this year for our own traditional alkathon and once again, Thanks to the Unity Committee of READINGBERKS INTERGROUP it will be New Years Eve at the Atonement Parish Center.

May God bless you and keep you,
Bob C.

This years Alkathon will be held on Dec 31- Jan 1 hours TBA @ The Atonement Parish Center State Hill Rd & Penn Ave., West Reading, PA

Step 11- Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscience contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

Tradition 11-Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films.

Step 12- Having had a spiritual awakening as THE result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principals in all our affairs.

Tradition 12-Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principals before personalities.
